Notes:	The requirements vary significantly from state to state. Some require surgical technologist to register in order to work in the state (Colorado, North Dakota, and Washington). Other states (Arkansas, Illinois, and Virginia) make registration and title protection optional. With the remaining states have laws requiring specific education and certification to work in the state. BHC program is CAAHEP accredited and students once hired must pass the Certified Surgical Technologist examination within 12 months.
